

Folks Songs and Pastorals Revisited

by Life in a scotching room

“Folk Songs and Pastorals Revisited” is a selection of French folk songs and pastorals of the world presented in both traditional and modern, electronic interpretations.

While versions of these folk songs are sometimes musically traditional, they can also be contemporary and lyrically irreverent. Folk songs travel from region to region, so local appropriations and adaptations are continual. Here pastorals serve as a testimony to renewed interest in this theme of local appropriation without focus on ethnic, national or regional origins.
